

NATIONAL BLACK PRE-LAW CONFERENCE AND LAW FAIR

ATTENDEE DOCUMENTS

Code of Conduct

The National Black Pre-Law Conference and Law Fair is committed to providing a welcoming, respectful, and harassment-free experience for every registrant, speaker, sponsor, volunteer, and guest.

Our expectations

- Treat everyone with respect and professionalism, on and off the record.
- No harassment, discrimination, intimidation, or retaliation of any kind - including on the basis of race, ethnicity, national origin, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age, religion, or appearance.
- Respect personal space and boundaries. Photos and recordings of individuals require their consent.
- Follow all host-campus, hotel, and venue rules.
- Cooperate with Conference staff and volunteers at all times.

Reporting

Report any concerns immediately to a Conference staff member, an event manager, or through the Incident Report Form. All reports are treated confidentially.

Consequences

Violations may result in a warning, removal from the Conference without refund, notification of your institution or employer, and - where appropriate - referral to law enforcement.

By signing, you acknowledge that you have read this Code of Conduct and agree to abide by it for the full duration of the Conference.

Code of Conduct

No selling, soliciting, or outside promotion

The Conference app - including the attendee directory, chat, direct messages, roommate and rideshare listings, and any other Conference platform - exists solely for participating in and coordinating around this Conference.

Registrants may not use the app or Conference spaces to:

- Sell or advertise any product, service, course, program, or business opportunity
- Recruit for, solicit donations for, or promote another organization, campaign, fundraiser, conference, or event
- Send unsolicited bulk or commercial messages, or collect attendee contact information for outside outreach
- Direct registrants off-platform for any of the above

Sponsors, exhibitors, and partners may promote only within the scope of their written agreement with the Conference. Anything else requires the Conference's express prior written permission.

Attempting to do so may result in immediate suspension or removal of your app access and Conference credentials, without refund.
